Tribal 8(a) Contracting

Unlock the power of the federal market with Cherokee Federal's team of Tribal 8(a) contracting companies. Our entities provide government decision-makers with access to the most impactful contract vehicle in the federal market, allowing for the swift activation of mission requirements.

Our 8(a) status includes a sole-source procurement method, enabling the selection of a qualified contractor of choice without the typical dollar threshold limitations. This unique advantage, exclusive to tribally owned 8(a) entities (regulation: 13 CFR 124.506), raises the direct award ceiling to $25 million for civilian agencies and $100 million for DoD agencies, without the need for a Justification and Approval (J&A). With a J&A, the award ability is unlimited.

Moreover, direct awards to our tribal 8(a) entities are immune to protests, providing an added layer of security for your mission. With a proven track record as successful teaming partners, Cherokee Federal is your trusted ally in navigating the federal contracting landscape.

The Agility of a Start-Up, Backed by the Support of a Large Business

Welcome to Cherokee Federal - a team of small businesses that represent the dynamic spirit of a startup and the grounded stability of a corporate giant. As a crucial division of Cherokee Nation Businesses (CNB), Cherokee Federal brings to the table an exceptional offering, backed by the strength and credibility of CNB.

Our portfolio, consisting of numerous LLCs, stands as a testament to our versatility and commitment. All of our companies are owned and powered by Cherokee Nation Businesses, creating an ecosystem of services that offer unmatched benefits to government agencies. This relationship allows us to harness CNB's vast financial resources and infrastructural support, providing capabilities that far exceed those of any non-tribal 8(a) firm.

At Cherokee Federal, we've built dedicated resource support groups across contracts, operations, finance, human resources, international, legal, and contracts management. These groups work synergistically to serve frontline operations, drawing from shared service resources to deliver strategic, scalable, and custom-tailored contract management solutions.

Our key differentiator is our ability to understand and adapt to your agency's unique mission. We take the versatility and adaptability of a small business and combine it with the mature backing of our corporate infrastructure. This ensures that your needs are not just met, but surpassed, helping to propel your agency's mission forward. With Cherokee Federal, you're choosing a partner that's as dedicated to your success as you are.
